Clean contemporary styling and advanced comfort technology come together in the Simone Zero Gravity Power Recliner, creating a sophisticated destination for relaxing, listening, and unwinding. Wide track arms with padded arm panels frame the silhouette, while a supportive bustle style back adds inviting comfort without compromising the chair's streamlined appearance.Brown Semi Aniline Top Grain Leather brings warmth and natural character to the recliner, giving its modern profile a rich, inviting quality. Tailored upholstery emphasizes the clean lines of the wide arms and structured silhouette, creating a polished look designed to complement contemporary living spaces.Independently adjustable power zero gravity recline and power headrest functions allow you to personalize your position for comfortable, balanced support. The zero gravity setting creates an elevated lounging experience, while the adjustable headrest provides additional support for reading, watching television, or simply settling in to relax.Integrated Bluetooth speakers add an unexpected layer to the experience, allowing music, podcasts, or other audio to become part of your downtime without the need for separate speakers nearby. Combining rich leather, customizable power comfort, and integrated audio, the Simone Zero Gravity Power Recliner brings modern technology and thoughtful design together for a more immersive approach to relaxation.
