Harmony® 900 Remote

Control Your Home Entertainment Devices — Even When They're Out of Sight

Logitech® Harmony® 900 lets you put all your home-entertainment equipment behind walls or cabinet doors without losing control (up to 100 feet away), thanks to its wireless RF technology. Just place the simple-to-install IR blaster and mini blasters near the equipment you want to control. Once you're set up, the color touch screen lets you start your entertainment with just one touch. Replace up to 15 remotes.

Key Features

- RF technology lets you control out-of-sight devices (up to 100 feet away)
- IR blaster system
- Full-color touch screen
- Rechargeable with base station
- Replaces up to 15 remotes

Logitech®

Harmony® 900 Remote

Wireless RF Technology

There's no need to aim your remote, and you can even control devices you can't see (from up to 100 feet away).

IR Blaster System

It's easy to extend your reach and turn RF signals into IR commands your devices can understand. Just place the simple-to-install IR blaster and mini blasters near the equipment you want to control.

Full-Color Touch Screen

Provides easy, one-touch access to activities and your favorite channels.

Rechargeable with Base Station

Just put your remote in the base station and it charges up. You won't be looking for batteries when you want to be watching TV.
